

Proposed Amendment to
Faculty Governance Structure and Process document
2014.1

Proposed by: Senate Officers

We, the undersigned, propose to amend section 3.03, as follows (~~strikeout~~ denotes text to be deleted, underline denotes text to be inserted):

(g) Any academic advisor (within the Division of Academic Affairs), instructor, assistant, associate or full professor or librarian with at least one year's experience as a faculty member at FGCU can be elected to the office of faculty senate secretary or parliamentarian. Any assistant, associate or full professor or librarian with at least three years experience as a faculty member at FGCU, including at least one year experience in the FGCU faculty senate, at the beginning of the term in question, can be elected to the office of faculty senate vice president or president.

Proviso: This bylaws amendment will become effective immediately after the vote by the Senate.

Rationale:

To allow members of the Senate who are academic advisors to serve as Senate secretary or parliamentarian.
